

“Virtual Pharma” Model

Each project will be directed by a Lead Development Team, which will map out a research strategy and oversee its implementation by a network of research service providers. The principal investigator (PI) will receive U01 funding to conduct bioactivity and efficacy studies; other research services will be provided without cost to the PI, through NIH contracts with organizations that typically serve the biopharmaceutical industry.